Suzanne and Walter Meierhoffer, Jr. Memorial Innovator of the Year Award
Procedures and Suggestions for Nominating Candidates

- This award is given annually to recognize and encourage education innovation in St. Joseph public schools.
- The award is named in honor of the memory of Suzanne and Walter Meierhoffer, Jr. who gave much to his community during his life.
- The Innovator of the Year will demonstrate a technique, method, procedure, plan, or teaching tool found to improve the delivery of instruction to students in the St. Joseph Public School District.
- The Innovator of the Year is expected to share his/her innovation with other staff members of the District during the coming school year.
- The foundation presents a cash award to the Innovator of the Year from the money given in memory of Suzanne and Walter Meierhoffer, Jr.
- The foundation places a plaque on display in the School District's Board Conference Room listing the "Innovator of the Year" each year.
- Other teachers, principals, administrators, students, parents, or patrons of the District may nominate individual teachers or groups of teachers.
- The Meierhoffer Selection Committee (a part of the St. Joseph School District Foundation) selects the recipient from the list of nominees.
- This year's winner will be announced in April at the Employee Reception.
